Thank You Message

Build a Masjid in this world and Allah will build your place in Jannah.

JazakAllah Khair and thank you for your generous donation towards building this Masjid. May Allah accept it from you and grant you good in this life and the hereafter, Ameen.

Just as the Messenger ﷺ built the first Masjid in Medina, you have built the first Masjid in this community. Through your donations we have provided a centre of learning, a place of worship and given people the opportunity to express the Islamic culture and values to non-Muslims living in the area. You will also receive the ongoing and ever-multiplying rewards for building a house of worship that will be utilised by many generations to come.

“When a man dies, his deeds come to an end except for three things: Sadaqah Jariyah (ongoing charity), knowledge which benefits, or a child who prays for him.”

(Muslim)

At the core of every Muslim community is a Masjid. The Masjid is a sanctuary for worshippers to pray and ponder as well as being used for amenities in the community. A fundamental role of the Masjid is to call to Islam in order to educate and spiritually enlighten people. Sadly, many communities in the Ummah are without a Masjid. Many communities have seen their Masjid destroyed in conflict or natural disasters while many areas have not even had the resources to build one.
